DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-40 have been examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-40 are rejected under 35 USC 103(a) as unpatentable over Geller(US Pat. No: 6,236,990) in view of Walker(US Pat. No: 6,131,086).

4. As per claims 1-40 Geller teaches a method of presenting information on products and ranking these products(Abstract)(Fig 2A)(Fig 2B) and calculating user preferences(Fig 3) through filtering as well as calculating rankings and scores(col 8 lines 27-48) of products based on consumer interests. Walker teaches permitting users to purchase products(Abstract)(Fig 7)(Fig 8) of all varieties(col 3 lines 18-29) and a variety of vendors(col 5 lines 35-50) as well as allocating purchasing time for the products(Fig 11A)(Fig 11B)(col 7 lines 30-44).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to combine Geller in view of Walker to teach the invention. The motivation to combine is to teach a system for making products immediately available to users as enunciated by Walker(col 2 lines 3-5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-40 are further rejected under 35 USC 112(2nd) for failing to explicitly define the unique characteristics of the disclosure with respect to the current art.
